50 LINERS NOW ON ATLANTIC, 29 COMING THIS WAY

Rush From Europe Continues, With Many Theatrical Folk Homeward Bound.

Of the fifty steamships on the Atlantic, twenty-nine are bound east and the remaining twenty-one are bound west. The rush of tourists home from Europe continues. Among the passengers from Europe in the last week have been a number of theatrical folk, returning to be ready for the opening of various new plays and for the opens season. More are to arrive on the vessels now at sea. Not only persona interested in modern shipbuilding, but all transatiantic travellers as well, are interested in the new steamship Scythia of the Cunard Line, which is due to arrive to-morrow on her maiden voyage. She left Liverpool August 20 and will leave New York for the return trip on September 6. She has gust 20 and will leave New York for the return trip on September 6. She has made her way in a leisurely manner across the Atlantic in order to get her machinery working well. She has only one funnel, but her gross tonnage is 21,000, which is regarded by authorities in shipbuilding as the ideal size for the ship of the future, the day of the ex-tremely large ship having passed with the war.

The Scythla, in addition to her many unique accommodations, has the distinction of being the first steamship in transatlantic service which was specially designed and built to burn oil. The other oil burners were converted from coal burning selves. roal burning ships.

An exception to the general rule among singers at this time of the year is Miss Alma Gluck, who left for Europe last Tuesday on the Aquitania of the Cunard Line. She is resting before beginning her concert tour, and said she believed she could rest better on the ship and abroad than she could in New York.

York.

Among the passengers who left Liverpool yesterday on the Carmania of the Cunard Line are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Asbury and family, Miss R. S. Babson and Capt, and Mrs. C. A. Clements.

It has been announced that the steamship George Washington, despite the tangled affairs of the United States Mail Line, will sail on schedule next Saturday. She arrived yesterday.
